

KELLEREI
BOZEN

CANTINA · WINERY

MAURITIUS

LAGREIN-MERLOT

Südtirol · Alto Adige DOC

This cuvée of Lagrein and Merlot combines fruit and structure, tannins and elegance. The name of the wine is the Latin form of San Maurizio, a village near Gries whose warm soils are the key to this wine.

Grape variety	Lagrein and Merlot
Area of cultivation/ climate	Warm fertile alluvial soils in San Maurizio/Gries near Bolzano at 250 meters a.s.l.
Grape harvest	End of September to middle of October
Vinification	After traditional fermentation of the must in wooden vats, the young wine matures for about a year in French barriques and large wooden barrels.
Tasting notes	Color: dark garnet Aroma: concentrated fruit aromas of ripe berries, mildly spicy notes and hints of cocoa Taste: dense and complex with elegant tannins and a persistent aftertaste
Food pairings	Substantial dishes with grilled dark meats, game, wildfowl and spicy hard cheeses
Serving temperature:	17 - 19 °C
Alcohol	14 % vol*
Residual sugar	2,2 g/l*