

ST. MAGDALENER CLASSICO

Südtirol · Alto Adige DOC

The hill of Santa Maddalena to the north of Bolzano gives this classic Alto Adige wine its name. Schiava and Lagrein grow together in the vineyard.

Grape variety	Schiava e Lagrein
Area of cultivation/ climate	Loose morainic soils on the hills of Santa Maddalena, Santa Giustina and Coste at 200 to 500 meters a.s.l.
Grape harvest	Middle of September to beginning of October
Vinification	The Schiava and Lagrein are harvested and fermented together. A portion of the wine matures in large wooden barrels.
Tasting notes	Color: light ruby Aroma: fruity aromas of red cherry and raspberry with floral aromas of violets and roses, typical notes of bitter almond and marzipan Taste: full-flavored, smooth, well-rounded, medium-bodied
Food pairings	Cold platters, starters, meat and cheese dishes, pizza
Serving temperature:	14 - 16 °C
Alcohol	12,5 % vol*
Residual sugar	2,1 g/l*